1. Protected Disclosures

1.1 General

- 1.1.1 A Protected Disclosure should be made at the earliest opportunity to allow the LOETB to take all necessary action expeditiously.
- 1.1.2 The protected disclosures procedure set out below does not replace the normal channels for raising issues of concern. The procedure is not intended to act as a substitute for normal day to day operational reporting or other internal employment procedures.
- 1.1.3 There is a difference between a personal employment complaint and a disclosure of a Relevant Wrongdoing. This procedure is not intended to provide an avenue for complaints about an employee's own position or a failure by the LOETB to comply with a member of staff's contract of employment, work or services. Personal employment claims should generally be dealt with under the internal Grievance Procedure or Bullying Prevention Policy.
- 1.1.4 See Appendix 1 for practical advice for Workers who are considering making a Protected Disclosure or are in the process of doing so.

1.2 Protected Disclosures Officer (PDO)

- 1.2.1 Any LOETB Worker wishing to make a Protected Disclosure should contact LOETB's PDO.
- 1.2.2 The PDO in LOETB can be contacted in the LOETB Administrative Offices, Castle Buildings, Tara Street, Tullamore, Co. Offaly, R35 E9K8.

 Telephone contact number: 05793 49400 and email address is: pdo@loetb.ie.
- 1.2.3 In the event the Worker does not want to make the Protected Disclosure to the PDO for whatever reason, the Worker should instead contact the LOETB Director of Organisation Support and Development, Marie Bracken, Administrative Offices, Castle Buildings, Tullamore, Co. Offaly, telephone contact number: 05793 49403, e-mail address is: mbracken@loetb.ie, to make the Protected Disclosure.

1.3 Format of Protected Disclosures

- 1.3.1 Workers must make a Protected Disclosure in the manner set out in this procedure to gain the protections afforded in the policy.
- 1.3.2 LOETB Workers are not obliged to make a Protected Disclosure internally before making it externally, however, they are strongly recommended by LOETB to do so.
- 1.3.3 Protected Disclosures should be expressed in writing with as much detail as possible, to include supporting documentation if available, to demonstrate and support the - reason(s) for the Worker's serious concern. Please see a Protected Disclosures notification form at Appendix 2 in this regard.

- 1.3.4 The written Protected Disclosure should be factual and not speculative and should contain as much specific information as possible to allow for the proper assessment of the nature and extent of the concern.

Ideally the written Protected Disclosure should contain the following information insofar as possible:

- State the disclosure is being made under the Protected Disclosures Procedure;
- The date the disclosure is being made;
- The Worker's name, position in the organisation, place of work and confidential contact details;
- The background to the disclosure;
- The specific nature of the disclosure;
- The reason for the disclosure;
- The names of those believed to be involved:
- The dates relevant to the disclosure and whether it is ongoing;
- The places relevant to the disclosure;
- Confirmation of whether the Relevant Wrongdoing has already been disclosed and if so, to whom, when and what action was taken; and
- Any other information that the Worker believes is relevant to the disclosure.
- 1.3.5 Protected Disclosures should ideally be made in writing. However, if for some exceptional reason the Worker is unable to put the Protected Disclosure in writing, he/she may telephone or meet with the PDO to provide the required information set out above. In the event a Worker makes a verbal disclosure, his/her disclosure will be recorded by the PDO and signed by the Worker as an accurate record of the Protected Disclosure.
- 1.3.6 The details given to the PDO will facilitate the initial assessment as to whether a Worker's disclosure is or could be a Protected Disclosure and whether it warrants an investigation.
- 1.3.7 At no point should a Worker making a Protected Disclosure carry out, or attempt to carry out, an investigation in order to substantiate his/her Reasonable Belief that a Relevant Wrongdoing has occurred, is occurring or is likely to occur. No investigation should take place by the Worker(s) making the Protected Disclosure or any other person(s), unless so directed by the Director of Organisation, Support and Development ("Director of OSD").

1.4 The Processing of Protected Disclosures

1.4.1 All Protected Disclosures shall be managed confidentially under these procedures, in so far as is reasonably practicable to do so (see Section 10 Confidentiality).

1.4.2 Stage 1 - Initial Assessment by Protected Disclosures Officer

- a) Having regard to the 2014 Act, the PDO shall carry out an initial assessment of the information received, to determine if it meets the criteria of a Protected Disclosure and to decide whether an investigation is warranted under this procedure as soon as reasonably practicable. If specialist expertise is required to analyse the information, the PDO can liaise with a member of senior management with the necessary expertise to assist with the initial assessment. The PDO will not provide any information that could identify the Worker to the member of senior management assisting them.
- b) The PDO has wide discretion as to how he/she assesses the Protected Disclosure at this initial stage. The assessment will involve a review of the information received from the Worker and may involve meetings with the Worker and/or the Respondent and/or others or such other measure(s) as are deemed appropriate and necessary for the fair assessment of the Protected Disclosure by the PDO.
- c) If it is unclear whether the disclosure qualifies as a Protected Disclosure, the PDO must treat the disclosure as a Protected Disclosure until otherwise satisfied.
- d) The PDO will acknowledge receipt of the Protected Disclosure and provide an outline of how it is proposed to deal with the Protected Disclosure to the Worker as soon as reasonably practicable.
- e) It may be necessary, as part of the initial screening process, to differentiate between Protected Disclosures and personal complaints, e.g. where the information provided may involve a personal complaint and a Protected Disclosure. In these circumstances, it may be necessary to separate the different elements of the complaint/disclosure and determine whether any specific disclosure of information relating to a Relevant Wrongdoing has taken place.
- f) After initial inquiries, it may become clear that the matter can be resolved without the need for further investigation. If that is the case, the PDO will take those steps to resolve any straightforward issues.
- g) The PDO may decide that no further action or investigation is warranted and this will bring the assessment to a conclusion. Alternatively, the PDO may decide that an investigation is warranted and in that situation the procedures set out below will be followed.
- h) If it is deemed to be a Protected Disclosure under the 2014 Act, the PDO will write to the Respondent and he/she will be advised of the following:-
 - That an allegation has been made against him/her;
 - That the Protected Disclosure has been recorded and is being formally investigated by a named individual in order to establish the facts;
 - That no conclusions have been drawn until the facts have been investigated;
 - That he/she is expected to assist the investigator as far as is reasonably possible;
 - That the investigator wishes to interview him/her at a specific time and place;

- That he/she may have a person of her choice present at the interview (i.e. an interpreter, a union representative, a colleague, a peer support from their workplace etc.);
- He/she has a right to make a statement in respect of the allegation(s) made against them either orally or in writing; and
- As far as is reasonably possible, his/her confidentiality will be respected.
- i) The Worker should be advised of the outcome of the assessment where it is practicable to do so.
- j) The PDO must advise the Director of OSD (who in turn will report to the Chief Executive of the LOETB if it is deemed necessary to do so) as soon as possible of all Protected Disclosures received, to include the nature of the information contained in the Protected Disclosure and the decision transmitted to the Worker. The PDO will not provide any information to the Director of OSD that could identify the Worker.
- k) Appendix 3 provides a checklist/guidance for the PDO in managing the initial assessment of a Protected Disclosure. It is recommended that the PDO would use this document.

1.4.3 Stage 2 - Review of Initial Assessment

- a) If the Worker wishes to have the PDO's initial assessment reviewed, he/she is required to set out the specific grounds upon which he/she asserts the initial assessment should be reviewed in writing, within five working days from receipt of the PDO decision.
- b) The PDO shall as soon as reasonably practicable communicate to the Director of OSD that a review has been requested. The Director of OSD shall arrange for a person at the appropriate senior management level ("the Reviewer") to carry out a full review of the initial assessment. The PDO will send the full file to the Reviewer to carry out the review and the Reviewer will carry out the assessment as soon as practicable.
- c) Appendix 4 provides a checklist/guidance to assist the Reviewer in carrying out the review. It is recommended the Reviewer would use this document in carrying out his/her review.

1.4.4 Stage 3 - Investigation of a Disclosure

a) Where the PDO or Reviewer decides that an investigation is warranted, she/he must set out his/her recommendations in writing to the Director of OSD as soon as reasonably possible. If the Director of OSD decides that there is merit to the Protected Disclosure, the Director of OSD will decide whether the disclosure should be investigated under this procedure or if it is appropriate to consider under another LOETB policy/procedure.

- b) If the Director of OSD decides that the Protected Disclosure should be investigated under this procedure, depending on the nature and seriousness of the Protected Disclosure, he/she will ensure the following parties are notified where appropriate, while withholding the identity of the parties involved where possible and practicable to do so:-
 - The Chief Executive of LOETB (or his/her nominee(s);
 - The Department of Education and Skills;
 - The Comptroller and Auditor General;
 - The Head of Internal Audit Unit ETB (IAU ETB); and
 - The LOETB Audit and Risk Committee.
- c) The PDO or the Reviewer and the Director of OSD (and, if necessary, the Chief Executive, or his/her nominees) will decide the nature of an appropriate investigation. The Director of OSD will have overall responsibility for co-ordinating the investigation and the investigation will commence as soon as is practicable. The Director of OSD will seek expert legal advice if required.
- d) If an investigation is required, the Director of OSD should consider the nature and extent of the investigation. This could consist of:
 - an informal approach;
 - an investigation carried out at the appropriate level in the departmental framework most appropriate and suitable for less serious alleged Relevant Wrongdoings;
 - a detailed and extensive internal investigation of serious alleged Relevant Wrongdoings; or
 - or an external investigator can be appointed.
- e) If the Director of OSD agrees that an investigation is merited, the Director of OSD will liaise with the IAU ETB to determine whether it can undertake an investigation of the matter on behalf of LOETB in line with the IAU ETB Terms of Reference. In the event the IAU-ETB is in a position to investigate this matter, the Director of OSD will seek an urgent meeting with the IAU ETB and outline to it the nature and extent of the issue. An engagement letter will issue to the IAU ETB within 5 working days of that meeting. The letter of engagement shall outline the anticipated timeframe for the investigation.
- f) In an instance where the IAU ETB is unable to provide such assistance or does not have the necessary expertise, the Director of OSD will arrange for the matter to be investigated by an External Investigator ("EI") (subject to the approval of the Department of Education and Skills) using defined Terms of Reference which will be agreed between LOETB (and where necessary and appropriate the LOETB's legal advisors) and the EI.
- g) The EI, in consultation with the Director of OSD, may obtain the services of relevant professionals/experts as appropriate and as it sees fit, including but not limited to:

- Forensic Accountants;
- Forensic IT;
- Private Investigators;
- Legal Advisors; and/or
- Specialist analysts.
- h) The EI will ensure that no conflict of interest exists in terms of the services provided by third parties. The EI will have access to all information gathered by the LOETB as part of its initial assessment of the Protected Disclosure. The EI is the final decision maker on all matters of fair procedures which arise in relation to the investigation.
- i) The EI will commit to completing the investigation within a reasonable timeframe and as agreed with the Director of OSD and will commit to providing a copy of the investigation report to the Director of OSD within 10 working days of the completion of the investigation.
- j) Appendix 5 provides a checklist/guidance to assist the investigator in carrying out his/her investigation. It is recommended that the investigator, whether internal or external, would use this document in completing the investigation.
- 1.4.5 Should an investigation determine that a Relevant Wrongdoing has occurred, is occurring or is likely to occur, the findings will be addressed and appropriate action (to include reporting the matter(s) to An Garda Síochána or such other statutory body as necessary) will be taken.
- 1.4.6 Should an investigation determine that there may be a case to answer by a Respondent, the matter will be referred to the appropriate stage of the disciplinary procedure as appropriate to that employee. The findings of the investigation may be considered and relied upon in any internal disciplinary process(es) which ensue. The Respondent's right to fair procedures will be followed as set out in the disciplinary policy.
- 1.4.7 While an investigation under this procedure is different to a grievance, anti-bullying or disciplinary investigation there are certain key themes and common features and the nature of any investigation under the procedures will be informed by the procedures that normally apply in the LOETB when other allegations are investigated. LOETB will be mindful that, if an investigation concludes that some form of Relevant Wrongdoing has occurred, is occurring or is likely to occur, the report that issues may be used in a subsequent disciplinary process. As a result, the investigation and the report should be able to withstand scrutiny as part of any disciplinary process and there should, where possible, be strong commonality of approach between such procedures.
- 1.4.8 In some cases the matter may need to be reported to An Garda Síochána or another body with the statutory power and function of investigation of particular matters. Any criminal element of a Protected Disclosure is a matter for the criminal justice machinery of the State. If An Garda Síochána are carrying out an investigation, the LOETB investigation shall only continue once An Garda Síochána confirm that it is appropriate to do so.

1.4.9 The LOETB reserves the right to place a Respondent on administrative leave subject to the approval of any necessary parties.

1.5 Updating the Worker

- 1.5.1 The overriding requirement when providing feedback to a Worker is that no information is communicated that would prejudice the outcome of the investigation or any action that ensues, for example disciplinary, or other legal action, including prosecution by undermining the right to fair procedures enjoyed by the Respondent against whom a report or allegation is made.
- 1.5.2 Subject to the previous paragraph, Workers making Protected Disclosures should be provided with periodic feedback in relation to the matters disclosed and be advised when consideration of the Protected Disclosure is complete, except in exceptional circumstances. This does not require the LOETB to give a complete account of what the situation is at a particular point in time in terms of progress but the LOETB will use its best endeavours to give general reassurance and affirmation that the matter is receiving attention.
- 1.5.3 Any information and feedback should be provided in confidence. There is no obligation to inform the Worker of the progress or outcome of any disciplinary process involving a Respondent which may arise on foot of an investigation occasioned by a Protected Disclosure. In general, such information is confidential between the LOETB and the Respondent who is the subject of a disciplinary process. A Worker should be informed that appropriate action has been taken but it is not entitled to be informed of what that action is/was.

1.6 Stage 4 - Review of Investigation at request of Worker

- 1.6.1 Without prejudice to the position that a Worker is not entitled to be informed of any action(s) being taken on foot of the finding(s) of an investigation, s/he may seek a review of the finding(s) of an investigation, in writing, within five working days of him/her being notified of the finding(s).
- 1.6.2 Where the Worker requests such a review, the Director of OSD will arrange for this to be conducted by a person who has not been involved in the process.

2. Anonymous Protected Disclosures

- 2.1 For the avoidance of doubt, an anonymous disclosure is where the Worker withholds his/her identity from the LOETB and a confidential disclosure is where the identity of the Worker is protected by the LOETB. Anonymous Protected Disclosures are not excluded from the protection of the 2014 Act. However, for the reasons set out below, LOETB discourages anonymous Protected Disclosures.
- 2.2 Anonymous Protected Disclosures will be acted upon to the extent that it is possible, although the LOETB's ability to investigate may be constrained if the Worker's identity is not known.

- 2.3 Appropriate consideration will be afforded to an anonymous Protected Disclosure received by the LOETB having regard to the following:
 - The seriousness of the disclosure made;
 - The credibility of the content of the disclosure;
 - The likelihood of being able to investigate the allegations being made;
 - The availability of credible sources of information; and
 - Fair procedures.
- 2.4 Due to the constraints involved in managing an anonymous Protected Disclosure, it should be noted that keeping the Worker informed and protecting him/her from penalisation may be difficult or impossible to apply unless the Worker's anonymity lifts. Furthermore, a Worker cannot obtain redress under the 2014 Act without identifying him/herself.

3. External Channels of Disclosures

- 3.1 LOETB Workers are encouraged to raise their concerns internally under this Protected Disclosures Procedure in the first instance. However, it is recognised that this may not always be appropriate. Therefore, this procedure, in line with the 2014 Act, provides for external reporting to 'Prescribed Persons' and to 'Others'.
- 3.2 It is recognised that in some circumstances it may be appropriate for the Worker to report his/her concerns to an external body such as a Prescribed Person. It will very rarely, if ever, be appropriate to alert the media and in general, the Worker should only do so as a last resort. The LOETB strongly encourages Workers to seek advice before reporting a concern externally. A list of Prescribed Persons and or bodies for reporting certain types of concern is available from the LOETB PDO.
- 3.3 The 2014 Act provides for five avenues of disclosure with different requirements needed to be met in different cases:

A responsible person outside LOETB

If the Worker reasonably believes that the Relevant Wrongdoing relates to a person other than the Worker's employer or where that responsible person has legal responsibility for something in respect of which a Relevant Wrongdoing may have occurred.

• A prescribed person

A person such as the Comptroller and Auditor General or the Data Protection Commissioner. In such cases, an additional requirement applies and the Worker must believe that the information disclosed and any allegations contained in it are "substantially true."

• A Minister of the Government

On whom any functions relating to the public body (i.e. Department of Education and Skills) is conferred or imposed by or under any enactment.

• A legal advisor

A Protected Disclosure can be made by a Worker in the course of obtaining legal advice from a barrister, solicitor, trade union official or an official of an excepted body.

Disclosure in other cases (in very limited circumstances) (Section 10 2014 Act)

There are stringent requirements for alternative external disclosures (for example disclosing directly to the media) to qualify as a Protected Disclosure under section 10 of the 2014 Act. These include but are not limited to the following conditions:

- ➤ Information disclosed and any allegations contained in it, are "substantially true";
- ➤ The disclosure is not made for personal gain;
- ➤ In all of the circumstances of the case, it is reasonable for the Worker to make the disclosure; and
- ➤ And any one or more of the following conditions are met:
- a. At the time the Worker makes the disclosure, the Worker reasonably believes she/he will be subjected to penalisation for making the disclosure if made by other means mentioned above,
- b. Where no relevant person is "prescribed" for the purposes of Section 7 of the 2014 Act in relation to the Relevant Wrongdoing, the Worker reasonably believes that it is likely that evidence relating to the Relevant Wrongdoing will be concealed or destroyed if the Worker makes a disclosure by other means mentioned above,
- c. That the Worker has previously made a disclosure of substantially the same information if made by other means mentioned above,
- d. The Relevant Wrongdoing is of an exceptionally serious nature (see Section 10 of the 2014 Act for further guidance in this regard).
- 3.4 Once LOETB is made aware of a Protected Disclosure through an external agent as above, the Director of OSD will identify an appropriately qualified person to carry out a thorough review (followed by an investigation if it is deemed necessary) as per the process set out above. LOETB is not obliged to report back its findings or status of the review/investigation to the external agent except in the case of a Government Minister or Prescribed Person.
- 3.5 While Protected Disclosures may relate to the conduct of employees of LOETB, they may sometimes relate to the actions of a third party, such as a supplier or service provider. In some circumstances where specific conditions are satisfied the law may protect Workers if they raise the matter with the third party directly.

4. Protection of Workers

4.1 LOETB is committed to this procedure. If a LOETB Worker makes a valid Protected Disclosure of a Relevant Wrongdoing, LOETB undertakes not to penalise the Worker in any way for making such a disclosure.

- 4.2 If a Worker makes a Protected Disclosure under this procedure, he/she must not suffer any detrimental treatment as a result of raising a concern. Detrimental treatment includes, but is not limited to, the following:
 - suspension, lay-off or dismissal;
 - demotion or loss of opportunity for promotion;
 - transfer of duties, change of location of place of work;
 - reduction in wages or change in working hours;
 - imposition or administering of any discipline/reprimand;
 - unfair treatment;
 - coercion, intimidation or harassment;
 - discrimination or disadvantage;
 - injury, damage or loss;
 - threat of reprisal; or
 - other unfavourable treatment connected with raising a concern.
- 4.3 If a Worker makes Protected Disclosures under this procedure, s/he must not be threatened or retaliated against in any way. Any person involved in such conduct may be subject to disciplinary action in accordance with the Disciplinary Procedure.
- 4.4 If a Worker believes that he/she has suffered any such treatment, he/she should immediately inform the LOETB PDO or line manager as appropriate. If the matter is not remedied to the Worker's satisfaction, he/she should raise it formally using the Grievance Procedure or other appropriate policy.

5. Rights of a Respondent in an Investigation

- The constitutional rights of natural justice and fair procedures will be afforded to a Respondent against whom an allegation of a Relevant Wrongdoing is made and the Protected Disclosure has been recorded and assessed as warranting investigation. The Respondent's right to fair procedures may include a right to challenge the evidence against him/her if the matter becomes the subject of the Disciplinary Procedure. That right will need to be balanced against the rights contained in the 2014 Act, such as the Worker's right to have his/her identity protected.
- 5.2 While an investigation is on-going, all reasonable steps will be taken to protect the rights and interests of the Respondent(s), including respecting his/her confidentiality pending the outcome of the investigation.
- 5.3 The Employee Assistance Programme and the independent counselling service are available at all times to all employees including those involved in the investigation of a protected disclosure.

6. Confidentiality

6.1 The person to whom the Worker made the Protected Disclosure will take all reasonable steps to maintain the confidentiality of the Worker's identity unless the Worker clearly states that s/he does not object to his/her identity being disclosed. If a Worker has any concerns about the confidentiality of his/her identity, he/she should raise these with LOETB PDO.

6.2 The following exceptions apply:-

- The disclosure recipient shows that he or she took all reasonable steps to avoid so disclosing any such information;
- The disclosure recipient has a reasonable belief that the Worker did not object to their identity being disclosed;
- The disclosure recipient has a reasonable belief that it was necessary for:
 - The investigation of the Relevant Wrongdoing concerned;
 - o To prevent serious risk to the security of the State, public health, public safety or the environment, or
 - The prevention of crime of prosecution of a criminal offence.
- Where the disclosure is otherwise necessary in the public interest or is required by law.
- 6.3 LOETB Workers should be aware that evidence, either written or verbal, may be required in court proceedings.
- 6.4 Where it is decided that it is necessary to release information that may or will disclose the identity of the Worker, the Worker will be informed of this decision in advance of the release, except in exceptional cases.
- 6.5 If a Worker wishes to review a decision to disclose his/her identity, the Worker should inform the PDO or the Director of OSD, as appropriate in writing within five working days of receiving the decision. The PDO or the Director of OSD will arrange for a review of the decision to disclose the identity of the Worker by a person who has not been involved in the initial assessment and/or review of the initial assessment and/or investigation as soon as reasonably possible.

7. Record keeping

- 7.1 Records will be kept securely by LOETB and in accordance with statutory obligations.
- 7.2 Access to information will ordinarily be restricted, to the extent possible, to those directly involved in the investigation of the Protected Disclosure and to the Chief Executive of the LOETB as appropriate.
- 7.3 In respect of anonymous Protected Disclosures, should it be decided that no further action is to be taken, details of such disclosures and the reasons for taking no further actions will be recorded with as much as detail as possible for future reference, if necessary.

8. Annual Reporting

8.1 In accordance with Section 22 of the 2014 Act, no later than 30 June each year, the LOETB shall publish a protected disclosures report in relation to the previous year, in a form which does not enable the identification of the persons involved containing the following information:-

- a) The number of Protected Disclosures made to LOETB;
- b) The action (if any) taken in response to those Protected Disclosures; and
- c) Such other information relating to those Protected Disclosures and the action taken as may be requested by the Minister from time to time.

9. Communication of the Procedure

- 9.1 All LOETB Workers will be made aware of this procedure.
- 9.2 This procedure will be available on the LOETB website.
- 9.3 All new LOETB employees shall be advised, during induction training that this procedure is available on the LOETB website.

10. Implementation & Review

- 10.1 This procedure will be considered for review bi-annually by the Audit and Risk Committee of LOETB in line with best practice, or in light of changes in legislation and guidance from sources such as IAU-ETB, the Comptroller & Auditor General, the Department of Education and Skills or the Department of Public Expenditure & Reform.
- 10.2 The date for implementation is [08/07/2022], which is the date of adoption by the Audit and Risk Committee.

APPENDIX 1 -PRACTICAL ADVICE FOR WORKERS MAKING A PROTECTED DISCLOSURE

Before you decide to make a Protected Disclosure consider the following;

- Consider the possible risks and outcomes before you act;
- Let the facts speak for themselves don't make ill-considered allegations;
- Consider that you may be mistaken or that there may be an innocent or good explanation;
- Do not become a private detective;
- Don't personalise or act vindictively;
- Recognise that you may not be thanked by all concerned;
- Remember that you are a witness, and not a complainant;
- Keep a careful record or factual log of relevant activities and events before and after you make a protected disclosure;
- Identify all supporting information to back up your disclosure;
- Always be on guard not to embellish your allegations;
- Keep in mind that people have a right to natural justice, fair procedures and indeed to challenge the evidence against them. As the Worker's right to have his/her identity protected is not absolute, it is recommended that you frame your Protected Disclosure in terms of information or data that has come to your attention rather than seeking to draw conclusions about particular individuals or specific offences; and
- Stay calm and look after your well-being.

APPENDIX 2: LOETB PROTECTED DISCLOSURE NOTIFICATION FORM

Before you complete this form, you should read LOETB Protected Disclosure Policy document in full and ensure that the subject matter of your concern is covered by the legislation.

Please note that Protected Disclosures must be made in good faith and relate to a matter that you have reasonable grounds to be concerned about. It must not be merely intended to undermine the reputation of any colleague or LOETB. If you make a Protected Disclosure which you know or reasonably ought to know to be false you will be guilty of an offence under the legislation.

	make a disclosure under the Protection Disclosures Act 2014.

APPENDIX 3: CHECKLIST/GUIDANCE FOR PDO - INITIAL ASSESSMENT OF PROTECTED DISCLOSURE

- 1. Have you read and familiarised yourself with the content of the LOETB's Protected Disclosures Policy?
- 2. Have you taken particular note relating to your responsibilities concerning the avoidance of the disclosure of information that might identify the person by whom the Protected Disclosure was made?
- 3. Have you given a copy of the Protected Disclosures Policy to the Worker and advised them that their concerns will be treated seriously?
- 4. Has the Worker adequately demonstrated to you that the matters he/she is raising fall into one of the categories set out in section 2.6 Relevant Wrongdoing.
- 5. If the answer to question number 4 is 'NO' have you advised the Worker that the subject matter of the disclosure must refer to one of the matters set out in section 2.6 Relevant Wrongdoing in order for the Protected Disclosures Policy to apply?
- 6. If the answer to question number 4 is 'YES' have you advised the Worker that you will carry out an initial screening assessment and revert with an indication as to whether, in your view, the matter requires a formal investigation?
- 7. Have you explained the difference between an initial screening assessment and a full investigation?
- 8. Have you explained that in the event of a conclusion that an investigation is required that the Director of OSD will decide the nature of an appropriate investigation?
- 9. Have you explained to the Worker the limits on confidentiality as set out in the Protected Disclosures Act 2014?
- 10. Where practicable, if the Worker is a verbal discloser has the PDO recorded the disclosure in writing and has the Worker signed the record to confirm that it is accurate?
